PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Casey Matthis the Executive Assistant to Bamboo Equity Partners. While maximizing the productivity and responsiveness of the Bamboo team, she supports all client interactions and firm operations. Casey assists in the onboarding of all investors as well as continued investor relations, in addition to aiding in the onboarding of new asset acquisitions.

Casey comes to Bamboo with over 20 years in the real estate industry, in both the residential and commercial realms. She began her career in sales with a local residential builder, before transitioning to manager/executive assistant of a commercial brokerage firm for over 13 years. Casey is currently acquiring her Missouri Real Estate License, and she is also a licensed Notary Public.

Native to St. Louis, Casey is an active member of the community, regularly volunteering at the St. Louis Food Bank, Basket of Hope, as well as other St. Louis charities. Casey enjoys hiking, attending concerts and traveling, as she has traversed over 20 countries.
